

Andrew John Nicosia

July 2, 1948 - September 26, 2019

Coca-Cola has lost its most valuable customer. Anyone who knew Andy knew his love of that caramel colored delight found in a red and white can. You would also know how much he loved golf, flipping television channels (much to the chagrin of his wife), his friends, and most importantly his family. Andy was a dependable provider who always made sure the ones he cared about were taken care of. And how did you know he cared about you? Well, that could be measured by the teasing you received. The more he teased and joked, the more you could be assured you were close to his heart. Andy also loved a good time – evident by the epic 4th of July parties he hosted every year. Andy loved to talk (and talk and talk and talk!) We are pretty sure he was the first person in line the day cell phones first went on sale and he didn't put his phone down for 30+ years. He was the ultimate social butterfly, making friends wherever he went. Even during his last hospital stay everyone down to the housekeeping staff knew and loved him. He had a gift for making people feel special, making him a uniquely special person himself. (It wasn't just his bleach blond hair). God definitely broke the mold the day he was born. He was loved and will be missed.

And to the Coca-Cola Company: we truly regret your pending financial losses.

“ Unfortunately, I will be out of town and unable to attend the memorial service. I just want to send my prayers and best wishes to the entire Nicosia family. My brother and I have done a lot of work with Andy over the years and shared many laughs. He was a great guy and he will be missed more than you know!

“ Betsy, Michael, and Andrea- I have many many funny memories of your Dad (and hubby)! Way to many to mention. There will never be another Andy- He had a crazy sense of humor- and loved to make people laugh in almost any situation! He was easy to make friends and was always a good friend- I knew when he would tease me- it meant I was special! (and had fun dishing it back).....He truly fought a fight- that he had no plans on losing- But God had other plans and took him home- and ended his pain. He will remain alive in so many memories that might bring a tear- but I promise a smile or a chuckle!
Praying for peace for Andy- and comfort for each one of you- as you face your days without him....Thankful for the blessing of knowing Andy!

Betsy, Andrea and Mike,

I am so so sorry. I don't have one bad memory of Andy. He was always good for a laugh or 12. The comments just flowed out of his mouth so naturally that you couldn't help but laugh. I hope that you guys can find peace and strength and comfort in the coming months. Andy will be missed but certainly impossible to forget :).

Lots of love,

Kelli

“ I am so sorry to learn of Andy's passing. As a tenant of the Sterling Town Center where he served several years as a maintenance/handyman, we will miss his upbeat, good morning welcome that he gave all of us every day. He was amazingly upbeat about his situation despite the challenges. He was an inspiration to all of us. We will miss you, Andy.
