“ Chuck was a kind and generous man. I knew Chuck through his sons Joseph and Jonathan. Chuck loved his family and he loved helping others through his real estate business. Some of my best memories are spending time with him at his home, relaxing and sharing a meal. I will always remember Chuck's laugh, he had a great sense of humor. You will be missed.

“ Chuck, you were like my uncle. You made sure I found a house for a good price in a safe neighborhood. And you did a great job. I will never forget about you and what you did for us. I enjoyed our conversations when tax season comes. I moved to the US at the time and I did not know a lot of people. You shared some wise words with me and you like to talk about your family....

I miss you and you will always be in my Heart.

“ Sorry to hear about the passing of Charles. I came to know this fine man, like so many others, through his real estate activities. Charles would honor me every year in my real estate continuing education classes. From time-to-time we would also discuss important real estate issues outside of class. What I appreciated most about him professionally was his evident passion. He truly loved his clients and customers and enjoyed being of ethical service to his community.

May God's loving embrace hold you tight, dear Charles.

“ Sorry to hear my friend Chuck has passed. Chuck helped me with my taxes for over 20 years. I take comfort in knowing that Chuck and my mother who has also passed, Kay Hopkins of Kin-Kay Realty are now sharing many of their Real Estate experiences through the many years of their professional careers. You are truly missed Charles.

Rest in Peace my friend

My love and prayers to the Aleardi family.

“ Our prayers and thoughts are with all of the family at this time. Charlie was such a thoughtful caring person who could light up every candle in a room with his charm and compassion. He's respected by an awful lot of people and I hope his charisma will be passed on to others. Rest In Peace Charlie Aleardi.

“ We are so so sorry about Chuck. We have been praying constantly for a healing miracle. Perhaps it was God's desire for Chuck and your mom to share the day together on Lena's birthday. My whole family will surely miss him as he was a wonderful source of good humor, compassion and kindness every single time we saw him. It was as if a light turned on when he entered a room and, after the warm hugs, Susan and Chuck would start teasing each other. He also made it obvious that he truly cared about others as he demonstrated to us every time we saw him. When Chuck asked me, "how are you?" I knew he really wanted to know. He was a good man who obviously loved his family. There is absolutely no denial that his big personality and amazing spirit will live on in all of us as well as everyone who knew him. We pray the dear Lord wraps His comforting arms around all of you, Carmey, Johnathan, Joseph, Donna, Josie and all of your family.
With our love and prayers,

“ Linus (from the Charlie Brown comic strip) had his blanket. Chuck had his MLS book. At night Chuck found it relaxing to gently browse through his MLS book, while his young kids played around him. Like my Mother, Chuck was dedicated to serving his real estate customers.

Chuck was also devoted to his tax customers, whom he served for several decades. Many of them treated him like a son. They would bring him baked goods, and invite him, and his family, to visit them at their summer cottages.

Chuck included my Mother and I at his family birthday celebrations. And he always bought my Mother and I a birthday cake on our birthdays. And, over the years, he and Carmie bought my Mother some delightful gifts. Chuck and Carmie both had the charm of hospitality. They were an affectionate couple, who were meant for each other.

We were very blessed to have Chuck in our lives.

“ It was truly a blessing to have known Chuck who always had a smile on his face. He could brighten up your day with a joke or funny story. His family and friends should remember his joyful heart, look upward, and onward to heaven to feel the presence of his spirit. Be strong and take heart, all you who hope in the Lord.

With deepest sympathy, Margaret McLaughlin.

“ My deepest sympathy to the Aleardi Family. Chuck was my tax man for many years. Such a kind and caring man. I always enjoyed my tax preparation appointment. We'd talk about our sons and life. I'm sorry I will not be able to come to the visitation as I had back surgery three days ago.

“ Chuck was a joyful man, who loved to laugh. He would do and say things to uplift the lives of others. He was especially kind and caring to me during my many illnesses. He would give me a lot of comforting words of encouragement. And he would light candles for me at church. He always asked me how my children and grandchildren were doing. And he loved to look at our latest family photographs.

I am praying for Carmy, Joseph, and Jonathan. Chuck will be deeply missed!!

“ Chuck truly lived his faith. He had a childlike warmth, tenderness, and smiling playfulness that made everyone he encountered feel welcome and special. Chuck would always fuss over seniors (like my Mother), and give them a lot of heartfelt love and attention.

Chuck adored his family. They helped him to unwind after a busy day at his Real Estate office. He enjoyed family activities such as card games, bike rides, and watching tennis tournaments on television. There was always a lot of joy and laughter in the Aleardi home.

I engaged in many engrossing conversations with Chuck while he slowly watered his front yard grass (and his back yard grass). He as a great listener. He also had a forgiving nature. (I would sometimes be overbearing and rude.) He was always there for me when I needed a helping hand.

Chuck was not a procrastinator. When something needed doing, Chuck was eager to get the job done. He taught me a lot.

I know my good friend is now in Heaven praying for us all. I love you Chuck.

“ Bill and I were so sorry here about Charlie. The Oddo family and Aleardi family go way back. We were together almost every Saturday night, trip to Florida, so much fun. As, the years went by, we all saw less of each other, busy with our own families. But, we have such wonderful memories of years past, that we will always carry with us. God bless you Charlie and your family. Love Mary Ann and Bill.

“ Chuck was a wonderful guy - always friendly, polite and hard-working. He bragged about his family all the time, too. He helped us buy our first home in 1995, and when I bumped into him again a year ago, he remembered us instantly. I'm sure he'll be well-missed by his loved ones; the world needs more men like Chuck.
