“ I worked with Ed Busher in Detroit when I was an Immigration Inspector and as an Immigration Examiner. During this time, I learned to respect his knowledge of the law and his ability to apply it. He always had an open door to his office and an eagerness to help with any questions or issues. Thank you, Ed, for your advice, guidance, and fairness! May God give you rest and His eternal blessings!

“ What lies before us are small matters compared to what lies WITHIN us. All that truly matters in the end is that you loved people. Dear Uncle Ed, I find comfort in knowing you are resting in peace.

“ Ed was the Port Director of the Bridge when I first joined INS in 1989. He helped me understand the job and how to be a professional INS inspector. We later served briefly at Detroit Metro Airport.
My sympathy to the Busher family, and one day (not too soon) I will see Ed at the immigration station at the Pearly gates.

“ I worked with Eddie from 1978 to 1985, when I left Detroit. He made the long hours, the understaffing, the rude public and Saturday nights at the tunnel all tolerable. He had a wicked funny sense of humor and could always make me laugh. Eddie had a way of expressing things like no one else. We found out one night we were kind of, sort of, shirttail relatives and that made me treasure our friendship even more. Eddie was always one of the people I missed the most when I left Detroit and I miss him even more now...RIP, cuz. Till we meet again, and say Hi to Maggie for me.

“ Of the many memories of Ed was when he talked about waiting for the PT Cruiser to come into production .. the one the picture made look like an original 'Woodie'! I wonder from time to time if his 'Woodie' had the power his story made it seem to have. RIP

“ From Sandra Hagan McConnell
May God give great consolation to Ed's family. My dear cousin how I will miss you. I will miss all the time we spent on the phone discussing everything under the Sun. It was so great listening to you recall all the time we played together as kids, you my brother Jim and myself. You had a great memory for all the antics we got into, And a great sense of humor. I will miss you my friend But now I know you're with my brother Jim, Aunt Fran Uncle Joe and Uncle Steve And your dear Maggie. As much as I will miss you I am happy for You and that you are with Our Lord and all the people you love. Until we meet again I love you and miss you.

“ As my heart is breaking and tears continue to flow, I know my dear Godfather is happy and healthy now. I know that Heaven welcomed another angel home. How lucky is he? I'll always love you Eddie...Until we meet again
