

Edward Jeffrey Humason

May 1, 1969 - December 28, 2018

Edward Jeffrey “Jeff” Humason was born in Youngstown, Ohio on May 1, 1969 to Edward Charles and Eva Humason. Jeff passed away on December 28, 2018 at his home in Clinton Township, Michigan. Jeff was preceded by his loving mother Eva and his father Edward, as well as his grandparents. Jeff is the ex-husband of Kate Swiftney. Loving father of John Henry and Joseph Nicholas Humason. Dear brother of Vinnie Ann (Shawn) Burton. Dear uncle of Evan Lee Burton. He is also survived by his several aunts and uncles, as well as several cousins.

Throughout his life, Jeff was a loyal person who had many friends who adored him. He was outspoken, funny and full of spirit. He loved to laugh. He also loved to make other people laugh and could do it effortlessly. He enjoyed reading, cooking, music, and movies. He was always full of useless knowledge and willing to share trivia. His two sons were the most important people in his life. Jeff enjoyed vacations with his family to western Michigan and any time spent with his boys.

Visitation is Saturday January 12, 2019 from 2-8 PM with a 7 PM Funeral Service at the Wasik Funeral Home, Inc., 49150 Schoenherr Road. (n. of 22 Mile Rd.), Shelby Twp., In lieu of flowers memorial contributions may be directed to Jeff’s family.

“ We all have many good memories of Jeff/Uncle Jeff, his character created laughter, commotion, and life within the Swiftney family. We shared some good times with jeff, from concerts, family celebrations to holidays, he will be missed by our entire family. Brenna will miss his comments about her weathered torn jeans, “can’t your dad afford to buy you new clothes”, uncle Jeff would tease. Or his constant rant about our puppy, “it’s just a dog, it could survive out in the woods alone, so quit your pampering”, calling her Hazzle in place of Hazel, and that she looked identical to Chewbacca!
So, to Kate, John and Joe, let the good memories of happier times fill you minds to help you through this difficult time. Let the family and friends support you and help you through your day on Saturday.
We love you guys,
Steve, Laurie, Carly, Devin, and Brenna

“ I have very much enjoyed our long Facebook conversations we had for the past few years. I will always see the similarities our boys have look wise as well. I wish we could have had our boys meet in Lake Michigan or Grand Haven like we had recently talked about. I was amazed by your memory and how you remembered so many things from when we were younger. It made me remember them and laugh. Your and Kates sons are so beautiful and they will forever hold their love for you in their hearts. I’m glad these past few years we talked about just life. TV shows. Frankenberry/Booberry/Count chocula cereal. I will definitely miss you my 2 month, older than me, cousin. Fly high and enjoy your well earned wings xo

“ Very sad to hear of this. I will think of the books that he recommended and the (very in depth) conversations regarding the books. Jeff truly did speak about his boys at any opportune moment. I hope they know how much he loved them.

“ Very sad to hear the passing of Jeff. I had the opportunity to work for Jeff after college in the IT (quanta) industry. I was the inside sales rep and I would set appointments for Jeff. He taught me a lot early in my “corporate” life and I will always appreciate that. He was a mentor to me and I worked hard to be his protege. Thanks Jeff for being tough yet understanding, mistakes can be made. (Like using a comma in the wrong spot :) I still use some of your office talk vocabulary which was, still is the greatest. You were a very good guy and I appreciate everything you did for me to grow as a person and career. I'm sorry to the family of Jeff for his passings. God Bless.

“ Dear Kate, John and Joe
We are sorry to hear of your loss.. Jeff was very proud of the boys and he did a lot of camping and watch them play sports at their school games. He is now resting in peace and will be your guardian angel watching over you as you develop to young men. May God hold you all in the palm of his hands during your grief.. Love Larry & Diane Ulanski

“ Our thoughts and prayers to Jeff’s family. Jeff had a special place in my heart. He was my Godson and the son of my most cherished friend of my youth. He and Vinnie were childhood friends of my sons and we shared many wonderful memories! Jeff is finally at peace and back in the arms of his loving mother and the Lord
