“ Dear Mrs. Sorrentino and Family,

On behalf of all of Eastpointe staff, we send our condolences to you and your family. It was such an honor to know you and your dear Frank. He was such a gentle and kind spirit who let it be known that his family was everything. How blessed you were to have each other. Your unwavering devotion and support shown to Frank throughout his many health challenges was what gave him strength and a desire to live as fully as possible.

Wishing you and your family peace and comfort in the love that surrounds you,

Jane Omilian

“ You all are in my thoughts and prayers. We always had fun getting together. Frank even went to drag queen bingo with our group. We had a lot of fun getting together for game nights as well. May you RIP Frank. I know you are no longer suffering and you are at peace. Hugs and love to Julie, Jan and family.

“ Frank was married to my cousin, Jan, and part of my Michigan family. I was lucky to have gotten to know him better when my husbands family began hosting family reunions at his sisters lake house in Gaylord, MI about 4 years ago. We would fly from Sacramento, CA to Detroit and stay overnight so we could have a small reunion with the Hamann/Sorrentino clan. I told Jan that Frank was like a gentle giant. He was soft-spoken and kind and was a wonderful listener. Even with all of his health issues he always asked how my mom and sisters were doing. I will miss seeing his wonderful smile and receiving his big bear hugs on our next trip to Michigan. Rest in peace, cousin, and know you were loved by so many.

“ My big brother, left us too early. He has suffered for a while now with so much. No more suffering Frank, no more pain, walk free. You were blessed with a wonderful wife and 3 wonderful children, a great son in law and daughter in law that blessed you with 4 grandchildren who loved you so very much. You had a lot to live for and a lot to see but now you will watch over all of them from above, be their guardian angel and help guide them. I will miss your laugh, your smile the fun family times we had together making pizza or having pasta with the bean playing Family Feud. I prayed for you to get better so we could all continue to enjoy life but God had other plans for you. I love you brother and I always will.
