“ I remember a garage talk we had a little over 10 years ago, where he shared that he'd really like to make some friends. Looking back it's almost comical because in those years after that he started to reach out to others and had a lot more friendships than I could ever count on both of my hands.

Thank you to everyone who was what he had prayed for to meet. Nice to have met a lot of those guys in that same garage. Always had projects going on.
Love you dad. Thank you for being here. Wish it could have been a lot longer.

“ I don't even know where to start.... Jeff was one of the first people to give me a chance when I started in sales. I am so grateful that he did too because I gained way more than a customer that day, I gained a wonderful friend. I'm going to miss our long talks about motorcycles, mountain biking, cars, family and everything in between. I enjoyed every delivery and phone call, sometimes I even felt guilty talking for so long but with Jeff it was so easy to do. You will be deeply missed my friend. Thank you for all the years of good times, talks and memories.

My deepest condolences,

“ I will miss our talks at the barbershop
You are a friend that cannot be replaced
I saw you many times give to those who were in need
You didnt know how to say no to someone without
Working in the jungle I never understood the long sleeve flannel shirt
No pepper on this earth was ever made to hot for you
I will think of you every mission trip when we stop for ice cream
You were one hard worker!
You found peace in Christ
I will see you again one day...

“ Marilyn, Tara, & Bree,
We are so deeply saddened at the loss of Jeff. He was a wonderful Brother in law. I remember girls when you were young & he'd play Barbie's with you. I always thought what a wonderful thing for a man to do, but that just speaks volumes of what type of Father he was. I hold onto his sense of humor, and my response was so slow, because I didn't get it. I can see him smiling at me & laughing, and saying "really Peggy". I remember how he rode his Harley to Iowa for Marty's wedding. I can still see him at Dad & Tess's when he gave me Marty's shoes that always hung on Mom's rear view mirror & saying I thought you'd want these. That also speaks volumes of what a caring person he was. He made sure that if Mom, Dad, & Tess needing anything he was right there wanting to help.

Marilynn..... my eyes are filled with tears as I'm typing this. My heart is so broken for you. Jeff loved you so much, and made sure you were always taken care of. He now is your Angel who will continue to watch over you, and make sure you're always taken care of.

I love you with all my heart, and I wish I could take this pain from you. Please know we're here for you & the girls. Lean on your faith. God is right by your side walking with you.

He already is so deeply missed. His picture here is the same shit eaten grin he always had.

Love,

Mark, Peggy, Marty & Megan

“ Marilyn, it has been awhile since we have seen you and your beautiful family, probably twice the time it took Jeff to grow that beard! Time goes by so fast and it's events like these that make you wish you could go back and have just a little more. There are no words that can comfort or anything we could do to take away this kind of hurt. Just know that our hearts ache for you and we are praying for you and the girls in this time of sadness.
Love,
Jeff, Ivy, Hayden and Isaac

“ Marilyn, I'm filled with sadness for you. Although it's been over 20 years since I've seen you and Jeff, I have thoughts of him a great deal. When we were neighbors on Jane, he would always tell me, he built it, you maintained it. He wouldn't stop a project to eat, he'd always want to finish it. I do that, all because of him! I enjoyed having you as a neighbor so much, so much so that when you guys decided to move, I told myself I couldn't let myself enjoy a neighbor again because you never know when they would move. He made such a big impression on me. My thoughts are with you Marilyn.
