“ I was greatly saddened to hear of the passing of Jeff. We met 30 years ago at the local high school swimming pool where Jeff managed the pool and I swam for leisure. We became fast friends due to our mutual love of and volunteerism in scouting.
This continued for many years leading into Jeff becoming my husband and my accountant, branching to help our adult children as well.
Because we always had so much to talk about, our tax sessions eventually led to sharing home cooked meals at my home before getting down to the business of taxes. We often celebrated a good return at the local ice cream shop!
Jeff was one of the "good guys." Always willing to help, generous in his time and talents. Our loss is heaven's gain. He will be sorely missed. My deepest sympathy to his family. Cheryl Hill

“ Jeff was my counselor for Lifesaving Merit Badge and a fellow Eagle Scout. I took his class three times, once at Lost Lake Scout Reservation, in Clare Michigan, and twice at the swim program at Rochester Community Schools. As this class, was Lifesaving and in essence training people how to become Lifeguards, this was Not a "Cupcake" badge or skill. He was high demending but fair teacher. I remember swimming laps and doing some type of drill that I threw up on the side of the pool. But I cleaned it up, caught my breath and got back in the pool.

Lifesaving Merit Badge was like the last two or three badges I needed to earn my Eagle Scout Award and take my place on that thin blue line of Eagle Scouts as part of the Eagle Scout Class of 1989. I am Forever Grateful. This was my first experience with being trained as a public safety officer, because after that I went to Emergency Medical Technician School, then on to Electrocardiogram Technician School and later to the Macomb Fire Academy to become part of the Fire Service, to again take my place on that thin blue line. Soar high with the Eagles, Jeff on the other side of the Veil. Till we meet again.

“ Jeff and I would walk to school together. His pace was a lot faster than mine. I ran across a newspaper clipping from 1979 with Jeff and my pictures on it talking about us earning our Eagle.

“ My heart goes out to Jeff's parents, brother, extended family and friends. Knew Jeff from down the street growing up. Such a bright person, so sensible, great head on his shoulders, extremely nice guy. (the only person in 7th-grade science class to get A's all four quarters) Reading tributes about how devoted and selfless he was to so many people in the years to follow is not the least surprising. To those he touched take comfort in the precious times shared with Jeff.

“ What a good neighbor and thoroughly nice man. I spent many hours talking to Jeff at our mailbox discussing all the important things in life that we all experience. As an original owner on Holly Court, we will miss his presence. Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord.

“ Mr. Stumpf,
Thank you for being my mentor and helping me to become a better person. Without your training I would have not been able to become a Red Cross Water Safety instructor aide and obtain my first job. Thank you for everything.
Sincerely yours in Brotherhood,

“ We, you me, Brian, David and Kristin, all had some good times growing up, the vacations, our parents card nights, trips to Cedar Point, summer sleep overs, the tennis lessons, bike rides, euchre games, the dice, monopoly, risk, and life games to name just a few moments that we shared. Thanks for the memories, I will miss you.
