“ Hey there Mr. Larson. Things haven't been going the way I hoped but I guess nothing is certain in this life. I've always had so much respect for you and still do. I hope you're doing great up there and just wanted to say thanks for being the person you were.

“ To our dear beloved brother Matt and his loving family. Our hearts are fractured by the loss of one of the kindest, gentlest, hard working man this world had the pleasure to know. Though we had you for such a short time the impact and love you shared has left an indelible impression on us all. All our forever and always. May you be wrapped in God's loving arms, at peace and free of pain: and May God watch over your family and bless them with love trength and peace through this trying time.

“ So incredibly intense is this situation...keep close together,,,know that lots of people are with you, and reach out to whomever, when you need.....no words can really help....but stay close to each other...and call if you should need...Melanie Gomulka's family/

“ I'm sorry for the loss. I love you and will miss you Uncle Matt. I will always remember you at restuarants. You would always say "burn my browns, I want my ketchup and a tall glass of milk." You were the most upfront person and I will definitely miss you at family gatherings. You were one of the most loving and funny people I have ever known. I will miss you Uncle Matt. Love you! I will keep Auntie Mo Mo, Sissy and Mattchew (Matthew) in my prayers.

“ First of all I know it's hard to loose a beloved person, but you need to have faith that he is already with God.
God has a reason for everything, not even a leaf falls down if God doesn't want it...
There is a tradition here in Guatemala and it's praying for the next 9 days the Rosary at 6 pm and it's for Holy Mary gets the soul to heaven...
May God bless you and be with you in this hard time and specially with Melissa, she knows she is a great friend for me
