“ I have no words! Bob was my cousins husband, but, he was more than that. He was family through and through! He was a friend, a big brother and a sweet sweet man. If you needed him he was right there! He would just stop by for a quick visit or he would be there helping you with some project you were stuck on. He helped my mom and dad and Tim and I more times than I can count. I remember when my mom got the call from Auntie Hattie saying he and Barbara eloped!!! There was so much crying but in the end my cousin Barbara couldn't have married a better man. She was taken from him all too soon, but now they are reunited again, both without any health issues. Bobby and Brian you have two angels watching down on your family's, keep make no them round and don't get are life for granted. It's too short! Love you both and know I'm here if you need me. Love you Bob and miss you!
