“ Just wanted to take a minute to let Auntie Patsy, Uncle Herman, Patty, Eric, Leah and all my wonderful "Wild" cousins know how saddened and sorry i am over Steve's passing. I so wish i were home to give each of you a hug and a kiss and to say goodbye to Steve. Over the past few days as i sit here and replay events in my life, i'm comforted by great memories i have with Steve, and then Steve and Patty...fun times at the farm, family party's, the Four M, the Parkgrove house, Vegas, the list goes on and on.....Steve was so kind and protective of me and always made me feel special. Thanks for some of the best memories of my life. You will be greatly missed, but never forgotten...see you again someday...give my Dad a hug for me...I Love You, Diane

“ I would like express my heartfelt condolences to the entire Wild family. Their loss is a loss to all of us. I had the fortune of spending almost everyday of the prime of my life with this unique one of a kind man. During that time Wolf was my best friend. One of the things that made my best friend so special was he was not only my best friend but a best friend to many people. He always had a way of making his friends feel secure in his precense. He was loyal, hilarious, caring and the toughest man I have ever had the pleasure of knowing yet one of the kindest men I have known. A few months ago I went to Steve's home immediately after I learned he was very ill. When I left him that night we stood alone in the driveway. This is what Steve said to me: "if either one of us were to die today, we could both look back at the great and exciting times we had together and with our friends, we could both look back at the wonderful families and children we had been blessed with, we could both say that even if our lives ended right now we both have had a fantastic life.". He was right once again. I told him: "you are the toughest guy I know, I know you will fight as hard as you can.". Our best friend fought as hard as he could and now he is able to rest. Even though my friend is no longer with us he is actually with all of us everyday. The fantastic memories and fun times we all had with Wolf, Steve, Dad, Uncle, Son will always be with us which means he will always be with us.

Wolfie, I'll buy us both a cocktail when I get there

Love ya Bro

“ My family & I send our most heartfelt prayers to the entire family. Mr. & Mrs. Wild, my Dad-Bill Pendergast sends his condolences as he remembers all the special hunting times with the Wild's & the Saiers. Patty, my heart breaks for you & your beautiful children, but I do believe your parents were waiting on the other side for Steve when he got there. Now they will have a chance to know their special son-in-law, husband, father and friend to so many...Godspeed Steve Wild, you will be missed, but never forgotten...

“ Our hearts are broken and only time will help them to mend. We will fill them with our memories of you, whether it be hunting, laughing, songs on the radio or arguing who is the ugliest. Steve you were a bright light that we are grateful you were and always be a part of our lives.
We love you,

“ My prayers and sympathies to the Wild family. I will miss Steve's infectious laugh! Now my Steve has someone to share his fishing and hunting stories with. Heaven will never be the same!

Psalm 42: 2-3

As the deer longs for streams of water, so my soul longs for you, O God.
My being thirsts for God, the living God. When can I go and see the face of God?

You're there, Steve!

In life we loved you dearly, in death we love you still, in our hearts you hold a place no one could ever fill.
It broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone, for part of us went with you the day God called you home.

Dear Family,
I am very sorry for your loss of Stephen. I know he will be greatly missed by all who know and love him. At this emotionally difficult time, may you receive strength and comfort from our heavenly Father and "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4) and hope from Jesus' promise at John 5:28, 29 where he states that those in the memorial tombs will 'hear Jesus' voice and come out...to a resurrection of life.' You are in the thoughts and prayers of many. Please take care.

“ Goodbyes are not forever.
Goodbyes are not the end.
They simply mean I'll miss you Until we meet again!

I love you Uncle Steve!! You have been more to me than an uncle. You were a friend, my godfather, and my hero. You are now looking down upon us and keeping watch. I could not ask for a better guardian angel. I will remember you always and forever. Until we meet again. Love you always

“ To the Wild family, I like to believe that when we lose someone close to us they still live through us and give us strength. The time we have spent with those we've lost makes them part of us.
