

Theresa C Tines

October 16, 1932 - January 15, 2020

Theresa C. (Barney) Tines, a loving and devoted mother and friend to all whose lives she touched, passed away January 15, 2020. She was in her 87th year when she was called to her forever home, where she is surrounded by God's glory.

Theresa was born October 16, 1932 in Detroit, Michigan, the youngest in a family of six children. She married her high school sweetheart, Fred, in 1953, and they remained in Detroit, where they raised three children. The couple later moved to Harrison Township.

Theresa was gentle, kind-hearted and generous, quick with a compliment and full of joy. Her kitchen table was always open for a cup of hot tea, coffee cake and conversation. She loved stories, whether from the countless books she read, the classic movies she loved to watch, or the ones she'd hear from friends and family. It didn't take much to make her happy — a phone call, a card, a visit, a hug from her grandchildren. She embodied faithfulness, grace and humility.

She was the beloved mother of Susan (Larry), Steven and Paul (Nancy), grandmother of six and great-grandmother of five. She was preceded in death by her husband.

A celebration of Theresa's life will be held Saturday, February 15, at Wasik Funeral Home, Inc., 49510 Schoenherr Rd. Visitation will be held from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m., followed by a service at 12 p.m. Family will be wearing color to celebrate her life, and invite attendees to do the same.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Henry Ford Hospice (<https://www.henryford.com/development/make-a-gift>), or to a charity of your choice.

Expressions of sympathy may be shared with the family at <http://www.wasikfuneralhome.com>

“ I will never forget Mr. and Mrs. Tines. Growing up in the neighborhood they were always there for their children and other kids like me, attending games and school events. They were kind, cared and showed interest in my life. They both inspired me and impacted my life.

My thoughts and prayers are with your family, may Jesus comfort you in this time and his peace be with you.

“ Fond memories of her from my childhood. She and “Uncle” (Godfather) Fred were frequently participants at my parents’ NYE parties! She was a beautiful woman inside and out. We have lost a kind soul but know she is welcomed into Heaven.
