Tribute Wall

“ 2010 Jan 22, will be a memorable burial service in your honor. Even though you have a site with a headstone at White Chapel, mom has chosen to lay to rest your remains at the Lakeside VA National Cemetery off the West side of I-75 at he Holly Rd (Exit #108 or 109) in Grand Blanc. You will receive a 21 gun salute, which couldn't happen to a braver individual who fought for this country in WWII, because of your Naval Service Records.

There's no one who could ever fill your shoes.

Our love a prayers go out to you. Till we meet again.

*With all our love,

“ My buddy Aaron, you were such a good person during your journey on our earth. Still driving your tractor and working at over 80 years old. Honestly! You you were such a stitch. Your kind heart and spirit will greatly missed. I feel as many most fortunate to have known you. You were a King. Today you are in a Kingly place and you are at peace. I am happy you are at peace and with our Lord. You will always be remembered for being the loving, kind, lively, funny, respected person you were. To know you was to love you. Until we meet again, love to you. A fine man and a fine friend indeed.
Your friend, Debi Smith

Kathie...My heart goes out to you. I know how much your loving husband meant to you. He was so special. I know you will deeply miss Aaron. Hope you keep all your good memories close to your heart. He will be with you in spirit. And one day you will be reunited. I am here for you.

Love, Debi###imported-begin##Debi L. Smith###imported-end##

“ Poppy was such a good man and i wish that he didn't pass. He just pass because he didn't feel so good. He was a trust worthy man and i love him so much that i wish he could have lived a little longer. I miss when he visited with his 5th wheel camper, we had such a good time. signd Gary Tanner Blackmore.##imported-begin##Gary Tanner##imported-end##
