“ I was only 10 years old when Adam came into the world. Still, I was so happy to be an auntie. Growing up together I watched him mature into a fine young man. Smart, loving, close to his parents and sister. Seeing him as a father gave me much joy. At his heart, he was a good man. I will miss him deeply. I pray he is at peace. May God comfort my brother and all his family during this most difficult time.
