“ I think we had the best street to grow up on in Harper Woods with our family and the Ciechanowski's, Martin's and Nystrom's. I will always remember Mrs. Ciechanowski as a sweet and kind lady....may you rest easy and God bless!

“ MY AUNTIE AGNES WAS MORE THAN AN AUNT. SHE WAS AUNT, SECOND BIG SISTER AND BABYSITTER. I'LL NEVER FORGET THE DAY SHE CHASED ME AND DONNA ALL AROUND THE HOUSE YELLING SHE WAS GOING TO WASH OUR MOUTHS OUT WITH THE BAR OF SOAP SHE HAD IN HER HAND. WE LEARNED THE SOAP WAS A BRAND NEW ITEM CALLED "WHITE CHOCOLATE". SHE REALLY GOT A BIG LAUGH OUT OF THAT ONE. AG YOU REALLY HAD ONE GREAT LIFE. YOU MET AND MARRIED A TERRIFIC MAN, UNCLE ARTIE WAS ONE OF THE BEST, AND YOU RAISED 6 GREAT KIDS. NOW YOU AND ARTIE ARE BACK TOGETHER AGAIN IN OUR LORD'S LOVING ARMS. LOVE YOU AUNTIE SEE YOU AGAIN SOMEDAY.

“ Aunt Agnes was always a joy to be with! She was always happy and smiling. She loved life and especially her family. Our family holidays will always be one of my happiest memories. She was always very supportive and never had a cross word for anyone, a beautiful and gracious lady, inside and out. We will deeply miss her.

“ Aunt Agnes has always been an inspirational person to me as she came into our lives at a time when she was most desperately needed. It truly was a blessing because she stepped up to help pull a family back together and refocus everyone. I loved her attitude and zest for life, she was always fun to be around. The extended family loved her and she will missed but fondly remembered. Cheers to you Aunt Agnes. John Ciechanowski

“ Mrs. Ciechanowski was a good mother in law to my sister Patti. She cared for her grandchildren, my nieces Kristen and Michele, my nephew Nick, she was an important part of their lives. She made us feel welcome when we attended their family functions.

“ Agnes was my aunt, but more like a sister
We lived together as one family as we were growing up I have many memories
The best was having our babies Gary and Mark at the same time. We were in the same room in the hospital All of our family were there
Miss you, Agnes 🙏💕
