

Alan L. Trebilcock

August 5, 1947 - January 10, 2023

Alan L. Trebilcock, age 75, of Fair Haven, Michigan passed away on January 10, 2023. Al was born in Mt. Clemens on August 5, 1947. He graduated from Chippewa Valley High School. Al was employed by Detroit Edison where he was very proud to serve as a boilermaker foreman for many years and made many good friends during his career.

Al had a great love for the 50s and 60s decades and enjoyed collecting nostalgic items from those times. Al enjoyed his beautiful view of Anchor Bay in his comfortable home. His jukeboxes were filled with all the tunes from his younger days. He loved to reminisce about cruising Gratiot in his old muscle cars.

Al was predeceased by his wife Betty Kollmorgan Trebilcock. Al was a proud father to his children Jim Trebilcock (Susan), and Danielle Alexander (Stephen) and stepchildren Rhonda Manion, David Manion, and Will McCashland. He enjoyed his grandchildren Ariel, James, Lindsey, Annastazia, Addison and great granddaughters Violet, Saige, and Noah.

Al's life will be celebrated privately.
