“ Al and I shared so many memories there is no way I could begin to tell others the influence he had on my life. He became more than just a friend many years ago, I don't believe we ever had a argument or disagreement that wasn't settled that day. He will be greatly missed by all the Barthels. I will miss the talks, side bets and jabs back and forth that were a part of everything we did. Rest in peace my friend, All our love Bob and Kathy.

“ The world lost a good man on March 25th. He went home to see his mother and father and all his brothers and sisters that left this earth before him. Uncle Al was a great uncle to me and an even better friend. I will miss the many talks we had over the years about our family, he had a ton of stories about them. Golf on Wednesday will never be the same without him there. I talked to him about a week before his passing and he said goodbye to me and to not forget him. How could anyone forget Al Gross. He was caring, humble, intelligent, fun to be with, hardworking, athletic, family orientated, and just uplifting and fun to be around. He was, like my dad, everything that I strive to be in my life and Jody and I will miss you dearly. Rest in peace Uncle Al.....we love you... Tony and Jody
