“ When we visited Uncle Al just a week before his death, he looked pretty good. We brought him some angel wings and he opened the box immediately and started eating them...so, when we got the word....we still can't believe he's gone.
Uncle Al was always nearby when we were kids and would do anything in the world for mom (they were very close). Words cannot describe what a great guy he was...absolutely the best.
I love you, Uncle Al!##imported-begin##Paul & Anne Nagel##imported-end##

“ I will miss Uncle Al more than anyone knows, he was my Godfather, we will always be linked together. There isn't any doubt that the brothers are complete now, and yes, I do believe the thunder will be rolling soon as a brand new game will begin soon, oh how those guys loved to bowl, and argue!
Patty & Phil my heart aches for you, please know there are more prayers than you can count being said for you and your mom. Tell her I Love her, OK?
I have a husband who is not well, I wish I could be there, I am not too sure how Jim would be making that trip down there for the funeral. I will be here praying for all of you. I cry not for Uncle but for all of us who will miss him, going on with life with a little piece of our hearts missing. God Bless everyone.##imported-begin##Cynthia Kurzyniec Murray##imported-end##

“ I'm so sorry that I didn't get a chance to visit with Uncle Al before he passed. I know that all the brothers are together now. I wouldn't be surprised to hear the roll of thunder soon as they all line up to bowl in heaven. May your family find comfort knowing that he is at peace and with his loved ones again. He will be remembered with love by all who knew him. God's blessings on you all.##imported-begin##Elaine Kurzyniec-Rosekrans##imported-end##
