“ I feel so bad for the family Al was a great guy. I went to grade school with Al, (Holy Name) for 8 years. Al was always kind & considerate of everyone, always at the top of our class, he always got all the gals due to his good looks. We always envied him due to his parent's owning a small grocery store in Detroit on the corner of Leander & Gilbo. The last time I saw Al & his wife was at St Edmunds before you guys moved out of the area. He was always active in the church, God has another mission for Al he just took him to soon. I will remember Al & his family in my prayers.
