“ Though I never worked for Eddie at the Court we became good friends. Alice and Eddie loved Luciano's Restaurant, so after I retired Barbara Pearlman and I met them there for lunch several times a year. After Eddie's death we kept up the tradition with Alice. It was always a good time. They were 2 of the sweetest people I have ever met. They always told me how lucky they were to have such good family, friends, and neighbors. I think we were the lucky ones. My sincere sympathy to all who loved them.
