

Alice J. Paull

April 7, 1930 - June 20, 2025

Alice J. Paull, a cherished resident of Ira Township, passed away peacefully on Friday, June 20, 2025, in Clinton Township, Michigan, at the age of 95. Born in Mount Clemens, Michigan, on April 7, 1930, she was the daughter of Nelson Amio Irwin and Ella Jane (Socia) Irwin.

Alice was the beloved wife of the late Andy Paull and a devoted homemaker who dedicated her life to nurturing her family and her community. Together with her husband, Alice established Paull's Family Farm Market, a cherished family enterprise in New Baltimore. The farm was a cornerstone for teaching hard work and instilling family values—a legacy that will continue to flourish through her descendants.

As a loving matriarch, Alice leaves behind a legacy of love and dedication through her children: Allan (Susan) Paull, Rose (Arnie Noga) Cannon, Dennis (Jacquelin) Paull, and Cindy (Tom Conlan) Paull. Her warmth extended to her nine grandchildren: Christopher Gagnon, Derek Columbia, Brent Paull, Scott Paul, Andrea (James) Biernat, Carrie (Patrick) Dorsey, Crysta (Eric) Lord, Mark (Deena) Paull, and Brad Paull. As a proud great-grandmother to 18 great-grandchildren and a great-great-grandmother to one, Alice's life was full of joy and family gatherings that nourished her spirit and the bonds she held dear.

Predeceased by her siblings Marvin, Bernard, Tommy, Chuck, Dick, Ronnie, Beverly, and Betty, Alice is survived by numerous nieces and nephews who will forever cherish her memory and the kindness she extended throughout her life.

Alice J Paull visitation will be on Monday, June 30, 2025 from 10:00 am until a 12 noon funeral service at the Wasik Funeral Home, 35259 23 Mile Rd. New Baltimore. Following the service will be a committal service at Oakwood Cemetery, New Baltimore. Family and friends are invited to remember Alice's remarkable legacy and to celebrate a life filled with love, dedication, and a steadfast commitment to family and community.

Alice J. Paull will be fondly remembered and dearly missed by all who had the privilege to know her. Her legacy continues through the countless lives she touched, teaching the values of hard work, love, and perseverance.

“ Aunt Alice was certainly one of a kind - she lived a life of dedication to family, a great work ethic, and a lovely smile for all. What a legacy of children, and grands, she left behind - they will make their mark on the world, too. May she rest in peace with the wind in her hair, forever in a beautiful field with the warm summer sun. In loving remembrance, Tom and Diane Paull and family

“ Great memories of growing up on the farm : Jumping on the back of the planter with Aunt Alice and Mom with their pabushkas on.

Aunt Alice grabbing the broom - twirling around the stand and dancing with it to “Who’s BedHave Your Boots Been Under “.

Growing up on the Eastern Market. etc.....,

Aunt Alice you were truly one of a kind - and will be missed.

Lucy and Ethel forever in my ❤️

Rest in Peace overlooking the fields.

Sheryl, Pat and family.
