“ My son and I met Al a few summers ago fishing downtown New Baltimore! He quickly became our fishing buddy and greeted us with a smile and "good afternoon" and was always excited to show us his perch he had caught! He taught my son how to fish for perch and was always there to take the fish off the hook for me! We chatted about family, fishing, golf and what we were having for dinner! My son would catch perch for him to put into his bucket to take home. He will be truly missed. Your Fishing buddies Mandi and Jake

“ Al had the biggest heart and would do anything for you. I have so many memories that I will cherish forever but some of the best ones are from the cruise that we all took together. So many laughs. I will miss him so much. Love you forever Al ❤️

“ “Unselfish” is the word that describes Uncle Al to me, a guy who worked his tail off for his family and simply got it done. Unbelievable Father and Uncle to all of us (taking all the cousins to a movie/canoeing/ice cream trip in Caseville in the back of a pickup truck is unforgettable). Learning how to perch fish from him changed my life for the better, hope you are getting those double headers out there on the ice in that yellow coat Alski!
