“ I was truly blessed to have aunt Al as my Godmother. She was my mom's best friend growing up in Detroit ,we considered Her as extended family . Throughout the years we always made sure to get together around the Holidays .She accepted invitations to family weddings and special gatherings until she was no longer able to do so. I was fortunate to enjoy some of her Dad's home made wine , two glasses would do me in. Although we lost touch the last several years Aunt Al you have always been in my thoughts and prayers. My deepest belated sympathy to your family .

“ My Aunt Alma was a loving and very quiet woman. She enjoyed all her nephews and nieces throughout her life. She was kind, caring and compassionate. I will always remember how much she did to make our Christmas holidays special. She was a big part of my favorite part of Christmas..... homemade ravioli. She never sought any attention, she just did what she felt in her heart to make life the best for all those she loved. When I was small she gave me a children's cookbook....I still have it to this day. It has always been one of my favorite Christmas gifts. I know she will rest in peace now. Her last few years have been sad and horrific as she left us slowly every day to the terrible disease of Alzheimer's. Rest in peace, Aunt Alma. In the words of one of my children," she was a beauty". We all will miss you.
