“ Mandy was a warm and genuine woman. We enjoyed all the moments spent chatting with her at the lake. She had a down-to-earth, authentic quality that puts everyone at ease. Moreover, my family often spoke admiringly of Mandy as a mother. Her three wonderful children are testament to her love and devotion. We are praying for comfort for Mandy’s family and we are deeply sorry for this incalculable loss.

“ Being a client in the office where Amanda worked I had the opportunity to get to know her pretty well. She is Loving, Hard working, Truly had a passion for helping people, and much more. I was going through a hard time and she always made me feel at ease and After talking with her I knew everything everything would be alright. She was professional and at the same time down to earth. I can’t say enough about her. She is a Beautiful Angel. My condolences and prayers.

“ Amanda, I am at a loss for words. Although we have known each other for a short period of time you touched my heart. I could tell you were an amazing person. Wish we had more time together. I enjoyed speaking to you daily about our class, our projects, and our common interests. I miss bouncing ideas off of you and asking for your advice. I wanted to make it tonight to pay my respects and say my goodbyes but the weather had other ideas. So I will put my thoughts down and send my prayers to your family. We had the same common interests and we were applying for the same degree, how I wish I could have you here still. I am blessed you came into my life and that God put us in the same class together. Until we meet again my sweet new friend. Rest in peace with our Heavenly Father.

It is never easy losing a loved one or a friend. Watch over your sister she needs you most right now! She seemed very nice and I will be forever thankful for your call Sara.

I am so sorry to hear this news Sarah. Your right it is hard to process. I remember Amanda as the cool older sister coming home late during our sleep overs in your family room. I remember her looking good in her school uniform and putting up (kind of) with her sisters middle school friends. We are thinking of you dear friend and are with you from afar during this hard time. Love you. Dana M

I am so saddened and sorry for your loss. I am a client that Amanda took very good care of. The first time I went to meet her I got lost and she stayed on the phone with me until I arrived at the office. Amazing, loving, kind, generous and patient. Whenever I would phone her she would calm me down and make everything ok. She will truly be missed. Prayers go out to family and friends during this difficult time. Sending my love, “ Amanda truly was a gift to me and my practice. Her rapport with clients was extraordinary; she had "a knack" with each of them, making them laugh and feel as special and valued as each one is. At the same time Amanda uncompromisingly called me out on my failings and challenged me to do better, she fiercely protected me and my time and space so that clients couldn't interrupt blocks of time I managed to carve out to handle bigger projects -- or just to grab a few moments' peace. She was authentic, funny, caring, and loyal to a fault. From what Amanda chose to share, I learned that her children and her immediate family were her loves, her joy, and pretty much her everything. Amanda was one of a kind, and our world is diminished without her in it.
