“ Andy was my best friend growing up. I would ride the bus home with him almost every Friday and spend the entire weekend with him when possible. Andy and I spent most of our time together laughing and pulling pranks on his older sisters. Julie was like a second mother to me and I am grateful for all the time I spent with them. Although Andy and I went our separate paths later in life, I will always consider him one of my best friends. It breaks my heart to hear of his passing, but my memories of him will forever live on. Rest in peace Andy.

“ I'm am so sorry this has happened to you Sndy. I have heard so many good things about you from my son Michael Leal. He will miss you so much when he's able to go back to work. I know it will never be the same. He will always be thinking of you while working. The laughter, the jokes the work! I am so glad that he got to spend time with you before you had to go. Rest In Peace and know you mattered and made a big difference in many peoples lives. I feel like I know you, but we've never had that opportunity in life. Bless you. Lyda, Michael's mom
