“ Dear Scott, Kim, Tyler & Emily:

We are so sad to hear of Drew's passing and cannot even begin to express our heartfelt sorrow for all of you during this difficult time. Drew was a great kid, a great friend (especially to Andrew) during all those years of baseball together, and a wonderful young man. I know you'll miss your son, forever; but he'll never be forgotten as he'll always be in your hearts! He touched each of us with his bright smile and outgoing personality. I know these words can't comfort you now; but as time goes by, lean on your friends and family for support and strength. You're in our thoughts and prayers that you will find peace knowing that he's with our Lord in Heaven watching over you from above. With love and prayers ... Carl, Vivian, & Andrew Linke

“ Scott, Kim, Tyler and Emily,
It has been my pleasure to have known Drew for 18 years of his life!
My Andrew and Nicholas and Drew became great friends doing what boys do in a developing sub getting dirty and playing sports.
The three blondes off on their adventures. Such a sweet, caring, silly boy I watched grow into a very tall young man who never lost that sweet, caring side nor that smile. My prayers and heart are with you through this difficult time.

All my love,
Mari Monarch

“ We are horrified to hear this tragic news. We have such fond memories of Drew, his young baseball playing days, surrounded by the love of friends and family.

Our deepest sympathies and prayers go out to the beautiful Sanders family and Drew's many friends, who will never be able to make sense of this loss. My heart is broken for all of you, I loved your son.
