“ Dear Tichansky Family,

Thank you for including me in your lives over the years, even after Andrew & I were divorced & especially the last few weeks of his life. I can't put into words how much it meant to be able to spend that time by his side. Even though he wasn't able to speak, he let us know that he knew we were there & loved him & I know he loved all of you. I know time heals all wounds, no matter how deep & I hope in time, all we will have are the good memories & the knowledge that Andrew is now at peace. He was a good man, a kind & loving person with a horrible disease that robbed him of so much. When I think of Andrew I will think of that kind, loving, fun person that I fell in love with & will always be in my heart. I will love & miss him always.

Andrew really was such a good person with a heart of gold. Time will lessen the pain. Love you Andrew “ Andrew was a gentle soul who my now 17 year old son, Jakob, who never really got close to anyone, and who years later was discovered to have Aspergers, took to immediately. Jakob would follow Andrew around and sit in his lap. Andrew always helped with everything that was asked of him. It's sad and it hurts. I'm grateful that he is at peace now . I love you Andrew.

Andrew thought Jakob was such a cool kid, he loved him. Andrew loved all the family, but he really got a kick out of the nieces & nephews & would always ask how everyone was.

“ Thank you Andrew for helping when I needed it. You helped put in my lock...you saved my butt when it came to taking down my pool....and you gave me a nick name that will always make me smile....(or giggle???) lol) I'm sad for this worlds loss....but I'm happy that you are now free from pain, misery, and the devil in the bottle! I wonder if God is letting you design and build your own mansion up there so you know its done right (and you won't even have to cut once and measure twice). I'm glad I got to know you, and watch over Dianne! Enjoy your peaceful heavenly eternity!

Andrew, the first time I meet you was when I first started dating my lovely wife Jennifer all those years ago and you warned me about this big family I was going to meet. Andrew, you and I had some fun times together watching the Tigers game or any sports events. you were a true friend and I miss you. Jamie Kurtz
