Angeline was born in Detroit on December 30, 1923 and lived her many years in Detroit, Harper Woods, and Chesterfield Township. Aunt Ang was a resident at The Village of East Harbor for ten plus years until her passing. She is now in heaven with her father Francesco “Frank” and mother Antonina (Candrella); brothers Frank and Joseph and her sister Rose. Aunt Ang worked many years as government employee as an office supervisor at the Tank Plant Complex in Warren, MI until she retired. She enjoyed traveling with family members to various destinations and even flew back to Sicily with her father “Frank” to his hometown “Caltagirone” Aunt Ang enjoyed doing crosswords, bowling, card games and most of all spending time with her loving family.
