“ I met your Mom and Dad at church during a celebration of Wedding Anniversaries. It was our 40th and their over 60 years. Your Dad was a dapper gentleman who reminded me much of my own Dad. Your Mom was a delight. We spoke each Sunday until the pandemic hit. She always mentioned that she was praying for me and my husband who is suffering from Alzheimers Disease. I will miss our little chats. I hop[e there is plenty of dark chocolate in heaven.

“ Aunt Ann was a beautiful lady who I highly respected throughout my life. Her laughter and good cooking, especially her jello fruit molds were something I always remembered best. Her cakes were divine! I wasn't so crazy about the vegetables though, and growing up at that time we were told to eat everything on our plate. (I had an apron with pockets I wore during supper, and that's where my vegetables went!)

I will always cherish the wonderful memories I made with my sweet and caring Aunt Ann who always had a smile on her lips. I will miss her!

Blessings especially to Mary Ann, Jane, and Bobby who we spent many a great time together growing up with! We had some wonderful adventures together!
