“ Dear Marvin, Denise and the Mantyk Family,

I learned that your mother passed away recently and wanted to express my condolences to you. I know that losing someone who is close to you is so difficult in so many ways. I and others are thinking of you during this time and wishing you well as you remember your mother.

Best wishes,

“ Our Dearest Auntie Anna from the first day I met you til the last time I seen you this summer at the wedding, you never changed, aged or indifferent. You were always that same special, loving and giving person and you will truly always be in our hearts now and forever and all will miss your smile. You had a wonderful long 93 years with not a-lot of real problems and much to be blessed for, now you and Uncle John are together again forever. May god bless you both, your forever in our hearts.

We Love You Ken & Barb##imported-begin##Ken & Barb Tomaszewski##imported-end##
