“ My Aunt Ann was a very special person. I have great memories of our family vacations up north together. I will miss her calls, visits, cookies, and her cards. Aunt Ann would shake her head side to side on Uncle Art's jokes. Jokes I thought were pretty good. Linda McIntyre, niece

“ Bud and I have had the privilege of being neighbors with Art and Ann for about 15 years. Ann was not only a neighbor but a friend. Bud and I have shared many experiences with them whether dinner dates, casino nights, or just a cone at “The World’s Finest Custard,” all were memorable occasions.

There were so many visits, phone calls and mutual power outages to deal with through the years, far too many to list. But, Ann was always remained her jovial self.

Ann was a strong soul, kind and loving. We called her the “energizer bunny,” because she always kept on going. I told her she was my hero.....and she would laugh. I’m 20 years younger and still couldn’t keep up with her! Her outlook on life, her faith and her energy inspired me and still does. I would take my granddaughter Hailey over to visit with Miss Ann. She would usually get a lot of candy. Ann always seemed to have a lot of candy at home and even in her purse (after dinner mints, of course). Hailey was about 4 years old when I began telling her that God made everyone and everyone has a story. We looked out the front window and happened to see Ann going to the mailbox. So, Ann was my first example. I told Hailey.....

“Ann’s Story”

Everyday Miss Ann gets up and writes love letters to her family and friends. Then she puts each love letter in an envelope, seals it and puts pretty stickers all over the envelope. Then, Miss Ann gathers all her love letters together. She walks down the driveway to her mailbox. Miss Ann puts all her love letters in the mailbox. Then Miss Ann lifts up the flag on the mailbox so the mail lady will know to stop and pick them up. Then Miss Ann walks back up the driveway to her front door and goes inside. Miss Ann just sent lots of love to all her family and friends. Miss Ann does this every day. She never misses a day....everyday she sends out love. God wants us to be like Miss Ann and love others every day.

Hailey and I have shared this story more than once. I even shared it with Ann, sweet Ann. Many times I have been the recipient of a "love letter" from you. They are still cherished and kept close to my heart.

I thank you Ann for your friendship, your love, your kindness and your example.

You were one of a kind.

I love you and will miss you dearly. Until we meet again.....
