

Anne Carolyn Ingalls-Zito

August 13, 1926 - June 24, 2025

Anne Carolyn Ingalls-Zito passed away Tuesday, June 24, 2025 at the age of 98. She was born August 13, 1926 in Detroit, Michigan to Willard and Mary (nee Larcom) Ingalls.

Anne had a beautiful outlook on life. She saw the beauty and positive in everyone and everything. She never spoke a harsh word and was thankful and complimentary to everyone.

Anne attained her Master's Degree in Education. She was a grade school teacher and enjoyed teaching every day. Her students were very important to her. To her teaching was not a job it was her way of building young children into knowledgeable well developed people. Preparing them for their future was what she strived for. She was adored and loved by not just her students but also by their parents.

Anne had a love for music. She enjoyed not just listening to music, but she also had a beautiful voice and shared her talent singing with several different choirs including the Detroit Concert Choir.

Even as Anne got older, she remained very active. She enjoyed walking, yoga and especially shopping at her favorite store, TJ Maxx. Through her life Anne cared for many people and touched many lives and made lots of lasting memories. Her beautiful presence will truly be missed, but her loving spirit will remain and live on in all the hearts she so graciously touched.

Anne is predeceased by her beloved husband, Domiano Zito. Anne was adored and loved by his children, Craig (Teri) Zito, Ken (Mary Ann) Zito, Dan (Kathy) Zito, Cindy (the late Dave) Bushe, Jill (Tom) Mannella, the late Mark (Maggie) Zito, the late Marcy Prater as well as many grandchildren and great grandchildren. She is the dear aunt of Pam (Guy) Scianna.

“ I will always cherish the memories I had of being one of Anne Carolyn Ingall-Zito's kindergarten students (mid 1960s, am class), at Wilkins Elementary School in Detroit. She had a local children's school TV program that aired on PBS on Wednesday mornings, the "Childrens Hour". Our Wednesday substitute teacher took us to the auditorium during the last hour of class to watch her show. I remember her beautiful singing voice and her ventriloquist talent with her Charlie McCarthy Puppet. Years later, as an adult, I had the pleasure of meeting her again. Eternal rest grant unto her o Lord. Thank you for the gift she was.

“ Anne and I sang together in the Detroit Concert Choir as second sopranos. We even traveled together overseas to North Wales for a choral competition in 1991. Anne was never without her warm and beautiful smile. Her words were always kind, and her heart was a sweet and pure as they come. Until we meet again, May God hold her in the palm of His hand.
