“ Joe & Candy,

I was so sadden to hear about Annette. I will miss our little talks at Jenny's, talking and laughing about old times. The last time I saw Annette was right before Christmas, talking about the peanut brittle your Dad use to bring home from Kzoo and paczki day at your mom's house on Glenwood. Annette will be in my heart forever, she was so a kind, loving and giving person. I will miss her laugh. God must of needed an angel, because Annette was an angel on earth. Joe & Candy I will keep you in prayers.##imported-begin##Marcy Tear##imported-end##

“ Annette was one of our daughter's ICU nurses at Children's Hospital. Our Sarah stayed at the hospital for a little over six months. Annette had such an incredible presence about her. So friendly, so happy, so full of life. She loved my daughter, all my daughters and always made Jim and me feel better when we were at the hospital. Annette would bring her mother's chicken soup to the hospital for Sarah to make her feel better. She also helped arrange a birthday party for Sarah when she was in the hospital and we still have the beautiful necklace she bought Sarah. She will always be in our hearts and on our mind.
She so loved her family. I heard so much about all the people she loved so much. She is now in peace in heaven.
With much love and respect. Jim, Dianne, Katie, Sarah and Emily##imported-begin##The McPharlin Family##imported-end##

“ I was deeply saddened to hear of Annette's passing last night. Though we had grown apart in recent years, she was always a member of the Suckarieh family. I would often ask my mom if she had heard from her lately. She was always our Auntie Net, I have so many wonderful memories of her visits and when she would go on family trips with us. I regret that the last time we spoke I had to tell her of my father's sudden passing. It hurts my heart that she is gone. She will be sorely missed. My prayers go out to you all in this time.##imported-begin##Jessica Suckarieh##imported-end##
