“ My sincere condolences to Marge and the entire family! Nino has been my neighbor for years and there could never be a more pleasant man. He was so funny and kind. I called to check up on him before Christmas, Margie said he was better and coming home soon. When he got home he called me to thank me for checking in him! How awesome is that! What a guy! Going to miss our little chat sessions in our court! R. I. P. God Bless

“ Uncle Nino, There are not enough words to say thank you for helping me get by my teen years, getting my plumbing license, building license and showing me how to keep the drive. I will see you again.

“ Mrs. Sieli, Paula, Janise & Tony,

First of all let me say how sorry I am for your loss. Mr. Sieli was such a wonderful person and I have such great memories of growing up with you all and your wonderful family. My memories are always from when we were in grade school and playing at your house. Of course, your Mom was always cooking some Italian dish, and I would want to stay for dinner. Maybe that's why I love lasagna, spaghetti, etc... My thoughts and prayers are with you all and please remember your Dad left a lasting impression on my life. I know it was a long time ago, but your Dad was a blessing in my life and I am so lucky to have known such a great person. Mrs. Sieli, I know Mr. Sieli is in heaven smiling down upon you and your wonderful family. God Bless all of you.

Love and Prayers,

“ "Uncle Nino" These words are hard to say again. My heart is broken. A truly One of a Kind! His love for my Aunt Marge never ceased, such a great love! A gifted man who loved his family and friends dearly. His legacy, with everything he taught and instilled in his Children and Grandchildren, will live on forever. God Bless You Uncle Nino. Love Always, Diane.

“ Grandpa Nino was the perfect grandpa, he was everything that I could ever hope for in a friend. I was and am so incredibly blessed to have him in my life. He will be missed forever, and I can't wait to see him again one day

“ One thing I know for certain is that Uncle Nino was always there. Every one of my birthday's growing up, my high school / college graduations, my wedding, and my son's 1st communion. I could always stop by for a drink and enjoy the time just talking. I could always count on a word of encouragement and love. It was never slow and the time passed way too quickly. Very hard and difficult for me to say goodbye to a good man that I loved and admired. I can't complain at all as I had the best Italian Godfather in the world!

“ Grampy, you were the best man I knew, and was able to call my grandpa. You were the most loving towards your grandchildren and your sweetie grandma (Margie) (momma). You rest easy, I love and miss you so much.

“ Even though "Uncle Nino" was not my uncle through blood, he and his wife (and children) always made me feel like family. I was always welcome at their home, no matter how many years had passed since our last visit. He was a good man, and a family man first, and he will be greatly missed by many. His stories will live on forever!
Rest in peace, and we'll meet again, no doubt.

“ A man I called Uncle Nino... a man like no other! Such a loving and compassionate soul who always knew the right words to say. The life of the party and great stories to be told around a kitchen table in Caseville or Fraser. Never one to dwell on his own illness but rather call others to see how they were feeling. A man who could fill in for Alex Trebeck any day of the week because he knew a little something about everything. A laugh that was so hearty it filled you up like a buffet in Vegas. A family friend to my parents for over 6 decades of happy times. We will miss you and relish the memories we have. My prayers to the Sieli family. Kelly Cahill

“ My grandpa was one of the smartest, most wise, and classiest men I have ever met. He was a role model to everybody. He was such a strong man with a heart of gold. He had a soft spot for all of his loved ones. He will be remembered always, and his legacy will be carried on through all of us.
