“ Dear Sue, Tom, Larry, Ronnie and Jerry:
Please accept my sincerest sympathy at the recent death of your father. I don't have to tell you what a good man he was: husband, father, friend and neighbor. He will be missed by many. I am so glad that I got to see your dad one last time on my recent visit to Michigan. He was sitting up and watching TV. He seemed to recognize me, for which I was very grateful. I know these last days and weeks were very difficult for you all. Just know that you and your dear parents have been in my grateful thoughts and prayers. May he rest in peace.
God bless you all. Love, John##imported-begin##John J. Crepeau##imported-end##

“ Sometimes, it's the simple things and the simple people that are missed the most. And sometimes, the most remembered people are the ones who leave footprints in your life whether it's from watching your softball games or from discussing college over a glass of water next to the pool. Now, I wish you could see where we're going and I wish that you could be there to smile at the achievements that are next to come. But, nevertheless, you'll always be here watching over all of us (and the Tigers). I love you grandpa and we'll miss you.

“ I was glad to have taken my mom to see Uncle Tony at Ronny's while she was here last. He gladly welcomed a few games of pinochle. I feel luck that I was able to see him one more time. My most memorable moment of Uncle Tony, was also associated to the Tigers. Months after my father passed, he stopped in to check on how we were doing. He was one of only a select few that did this. He gave me a couple tickets to see the Tigers. They were my father's favorite ... as he was a baseball junky. That was the 1984 season and I was about to turn 14. I always thought it was something that my dad's favorite team would win the series the year after his death, and thanks to Uncle Tony, I got to see one of those games. Our thoughts are with everyone ... Dan, Heather, Nick, and Josh.##imported-begin##Dan Andres##imported-end##

“ Uncle Tony was such a sweet and kind man.

I remember going to the ball park with Tommy on "Al Kaline Day" and Uncle Tony was there to greet us and hand out all of the things.....still have the button....at 46 years old.

He was quiet, often times, but caring and I will always remember how nice he was to me growing up.....and afterwards as I grew older.

He always came up to me and shook my hand strongly or patted me on the back and gave me a short hug and said "Jimmmeeeeeeee, how are you doing?"....each and every time we met over the years.

I am sorry I cannot make it to Michigan tonight and tomorrow because of work commitments, but wish I could be there to see all of you folks and tell you in person what a nice man he was.....which you all know as he was your Dad and Grandfather and Greatgrandfather, and can't believe time has passed for so long that he was 87. What a great "run" as they say.

I hope you are all well and strength for each other during this time.
