“ I have known Arleen for probably more than 60 years. We grew up in the same neighborhood. We also worked together for 5-6 years at Detroit Bank & Trust in Nothland Center. I used to pick her up from her house on Fenmore for work. Her Mom would always wave me to come in and have coffee with her and Arleen before work. We kept in touch all these years. She was so proud of her daughters and granddaughters and we shared pictures of our children and grandchildren on birthdays, anniversaries, and Christmas. I pray her family finds comfort in knowing what a wonderful person she was. RIP Arleen, I valued our friendship all these years.
