“ I’m heartbroken to just learn of Art’s passing. I grew up across the street from him and his beloved parents Emily and Mike in Sterling Heights. He was a great neighbor and will be remembered as devoted Wolverine fan, and a genuine guy. I’m so sorry to hear this sad news. Condolences to his family and friends on your loss.

“ My parents knew your parents back in the day, had no idea when i met you at TACOM nor that you lived right around the block from them either or me from 13+. I will never forget our "exchange of words at work" lol or after your retirement, you stopping by giving me additional instructions when I was helping my mother out doing yard work, you dished out comments and I dished them right back, your laughter was a delight. I'm so sorry to hear of your passing without being able to show my condolences. I just ran into your coworker on Tuesday, no one knew. You were and are a great person, you will be missed and I am so blessed to have known you, worked with you along with many others at TACOM . May you RIP my friend.! Till we meet again!

“ My deepest sympathy to the family. I knew Art as a young boy on the east side of Detroit. Mike and Mela, Bernie and Lydia introduced me to Polish feasts and customs. I know the heavenly reunion is joyous.

“ It is with great sorrow that we learned the loss of our dear cousin Art.

Although we did not see Art often, we enjoyed the times when we were able to share with Art. In our conversations, He was curious about the goings-on with the family and always enthusiastic about how well the family was doing. He was always quick with an encouraging word and sage advice.

He had so much love to give and was blessed in his later years with a new family. You could also sense the excitement in his voice as he spoke about his family which loved him very much.

At your first opportunity, raise your glass in tribute to Art -

" Dear Lord, bless and keep your devoted servant, a loving and kind man and loyal U of M fan! Go Blue!"

“ Art, you are missed and loved dearly. In the short time I knew you, you were so kind and sweet. We are so lucky to have known you. Diana made you a “going to heaven” party card for you because she was celebrating your entrance to heaven and being with god. You were very courageous in your fight and never gave up hope. You are so strong and we only wish we had more time with you. I know you are in heaven now with your parents and I hope you get the peace and rest you deserve. We will miss you Art!!! God bless you. Love, chelsea, Ramon, Diana and ray

“ My dearest friend, my. Golf partner, my cousin, my brother, even though the miles between us are great not a day goes by without thinking of you and the memories we shared on the course or the game, and our long indepth conversations at pisano's . We covered everything from politics to business to the realm of the world. A true gentleman with a kind heart and never a cross word you have always been the example of the person I always strive to be. You have been my mentor and always the voice of reason you will always be loved and remembered. "Middle of the fairway, save a stroke" and GO BLUE!!!

“ A perpetually warm, kind, and generous soul. You will be missed by many, yet those you leave behind are warmed by the thought you were reunited with loved ones who greeted you at the gates....Vaya Con Dios, Art. Until we meet again.

“ Rosemarie and family,
The strife is over, but the happy memories will always remain. God has reunited Art with his loving parents in heaven. Keep the faith that one day we, too, will be united with him once again. 🙏❤️
