“ Our deepest condolences to Lori, Alycia (her family) and Kyle. We have been blessed to have known Aunt Audrey for a good portion of our lives. So many good times and wonderful memories of Aunt Audrey and Uncle Ed up at Club 31. The bond fires, card games and laughs with the whole family are great images that will always be remembered. I can also remember her playing the accordion at many of the family gatherings. Her cheerful sense of humor and strong personality made her fun loving to the end. When talking with her at Christmas, she was very talkative and had asked how all the kids were doing. It was always common for her to say; tell the kids that I said hi. Aunt Audrey was a true Christian and loved her Lord. This was apparent, when she said that she was ready to meet her Lord. We rejoice, knowing that she's in heaven with her husband Ed and daughter Diane, and most importantly, her Lord and Savior. Rest in Peace Aunt Audrey, until that great reunion in heaven of when we all meet again.
