“ When I was 4 years old, Aunt Audrey gave me a Raggedy Ann doll. It was someone else's birthday and she gave it to me so I wouldn't feel left out. At the ripe old age of 4 I had heard of this concept, but that was the one and only time I was the beneficiary. That's how sweet Aunt Audrey was. I still have the doll and I always will. I slept with her until I was an age I'm embarrassed to admit and many a boogey man was deflected away into the night because I had Raggedy by my side. Thank you, Aunt Audrey!!!
She also helped foster my love for reading. For my 6th birthday, she gave me a collection of A.A. Milne books including "Now We Are Six". I read them all, then I read them all again. Gosh I loved that collection!
Those are just a couple of examples of what a kind and beautiful person she was. I'm going to miss her like crazy.

May her memory be a blessing. <3

“ I loved Aunt Audrey so much. She was such a kind and sweet person. My best memory will be of her sense of humor and lively personality. She loved her family so much. Such a great example of of goodness and generosity. She nicknamed me “Char” during one of our family funny moments and always called me that. I loved it and I always called her AA. Until we meet again.

*Love,
Vicki “Char” (Tehansky) Lomasney*

“ Audrey and I became friends when we met at Macomb Community College. We were older moms going back to school to become teachers. We had so much in common with three children to take care of while studying. Audrey got a full ride scholarship to Wayne State University. She qualified for it by receiving all A's for two years from MCC. We were friends from that time on even though we went on to separate careers. I loved Audrey's humor - her sparkling eyes - and her sweet heart. My deepest condolences to her family. I know she will be greatly missed ❤️
