Uncle Augie was such a fun guy and he wanted you to have fun when you were in his presence. His huge smile would greet you, and you remained in that special "fun" bubble until you left. He made you feel extraordinary, you mattered. I loved how he would always visit Aunt Evelyn to catch up and see how she was. About a week before Aunt Evelyn passed, Catherine and I went to visit her. Shortly after we arrived, wouldn't you know here comes Uncle Augie slipping in to visit Aunt Evelyn. I had my dog Dylan with me, and the nursing home allowed him to come inside. Uncle Augie lit right up and he took the leash from me so he could hold and pet him. He enjoyed the dog so much, even while Dylan was constantly tugging and trying to get away and look around. In the picture, you can see him grasping the leash and Dylan is on the left side of the photo. All of us had a deeply moving, kind of spiritual day that day in our own way. I'll never forget it. My heart goes out to all of you missing his wonderful presence here on earth.

*Love,
Mary Jaworski*

“ Rest In Peace my friend. I cannot count the great memories we had together and the few not so good ones also. For many years you were like a best friend and a second father, you will be missed by many. God bless you, your family and your friends in this difficult time. Godspeed Pal.

“ Uncle Gus was a one of kind guy. Humble, funny, generous and always a heart warming smile. Loved sports, enjoyed a party, and had a kind word to say about everyone.

All of those wonderful attributes contributed to the respect and love he received from family, friends and acquaintances.

Your warm, gentle style will be sadly missed but never forgotten Uncle, Rest In Peace and enjoy the everlasting tranquility of Gods kingdom.
