“ It wasn't until later in life that I really got to know my "auntie Jo". What a great sense of humor she had. But she surley needed that to keep up with her two brothers, my Dad and uncle Jack. We all looked forward to her visits to Carey to see Grandma Eva. She and Dad would sit at the kitchen table for hours and drink coffee and talk about everything from the past to the future. I will miss her so much but I know that she is in some very good company right now, and I can almost hear the laughter again. Rest in peace aunt Joan. We love you! Nancy, Dave, Tracy & Chuck

“ I will miss my aunt Joan and I wish our families had spent more time together. I remember her laughing soooo hard when her brothers would do or say something crazy - which was most of the time. They really used to get her going. She had the same hardy, infectious laugh that Grandma Eva had. I think Bob and Jack used to compete to see who could get everyone laughing until they cried. What a crazy bunch. Rest in peace and may God bless you.
