“ So sorry to hear about the passing of Barbara. I (Ralph) remember the good times we had playing together as kids. There were 8 years difference in age between us and her mom & dad and my mom (Gertie) & dad (Walter) did a lot of things together. Due to my illness (cancer and multiple issues) I and my wife Patti are very frustrated not being able to attend Barb's visitation. We will be sending a spiritual gift to the house. Please know that our thoughts are sincerely with all of you at this time. Blessings, Cousin Ralph & Patti Wenski

“ I just learned of Barbara's death today, thanks to cousin Tim Westfall. Because I live outside of Seattle now, Jim and I will be unable to be there, but our hearts are with everyone. I am in shock. She was so young. . .too young.

I enjoyed Barbara's humor over the years and her Christmas card notes that she faithfully sent. I know there's a big welcoming in Heaven for Barbara as she joins the rest of her family.

Until we meet again, I will miss you, Barbara. . . .

“ My prayers and sympathy. I spoke to Barb last year and we remembered her parents whom I used to visit with my grandparents, Ed and Eleanor Sroka. I will remember her always.

“ I lost one of the most special people in my life. I am beyond stricken with sadness over the loss of my Aunt Barbs. If being non-judgmental, compassionate, generous, and full of fun were measured in dollar value, my Aunt Barb would have been extremely wealthy. She was an amazing woman and so full of life. I have sooo many happy and funny memories with my Aunt Barb, I wouldn't know where to begin. In my greatest pain, She was there for me. After my dad told me the devastating news that my sister was gone, Aunt Barb was right there next to me trying to pick up the pieces of my broken heart. She stayed by my side. I know heaven is a brighter place with my sister, Lynn and my Aunt Barbs there. I'm sue they are having a kamikaze together. My dear Aunt Barbs, you will always hold a very special place in my heart. Your laugh will stay with me forever. I love you. My dear three cousins, Tony, Pam, and John, I don't have any adequate words to express my deep felt sorrow. My heart bleeds for all of you. I know that death leaves us a heartache that no one else can heal, but love leaves us a memory that no one else can steal. May loving memories of your mom bring you comfort. May God bring you strength. Please know I am here for all of you as your mom was for me. I love you all,
Patti

“ I will always remember Pam's mom (as I always referred to her) saying we understood what it was like to share a special bond with our daughters. We loved our sons to distraction but appreciated our daughters in ways that were hard to articulate. Barb understood me and I her... I will miss her.
