“ *Death is nothing at all.
I have only slipped away to the next room.
I am I and you are you.
Whatever we were to each other,
That, we still are.*

*Call me by my old familiar name.
Speak to me in the easy way
which you always used.
Put no difference into your tone.
Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow.*

*Laugh as we always laughed
at the little jokes we enjoyed together.
Play, smile, think of me. Pray for me.
Let my name be ever the household word that it always was.
Let it be spoken without effect.
Without the trace of a shadow on it.*

*Life means all that it ever meant.
It is the same that it ever was.
There is absolute unbroken continuity.
Why should I be out of mind
because I am out of sight?*

*I am but waiting for you.
For an interval.
Somewhere. Very near.
Just around the corner.*

All is well.

Nothing is past; nothing is lost. One brief moment and all will be as it was before only better, infinitely happier and forever we will all be one together with Christ

“ Grandma,

I miss you so much already. I could always count on a smile, a hug & kiss, feeling your warm grandmotherly love each & every time we saw eachother.

Will miss our talks together, you always had kind, insightful words of wisdom with a joke or two sprinkled in of course.

I remember the mornings of you picking us up & driving Becky, Andy & me to school. You were always in a good mood & tried yer best to make 3 tired, grumpy kids laugh before the school day started.

The good heavenly father has now called upon you to brighten the day of those family & friends whom have passed on. Heaven will be a bit brighter with your presence.

You will be missed by many here on earth, but your presence is still felt. Thank you for being my Grandmother, I am so very lucky to have had the opportunity to know your unconditional love. Please stay with me and your loved ones now & forever.

Sincerely,,

Your “Tall Drink of Water” & loving grandson Tony

“ *This beautiful lady and her husband John sponsored Mary and I for our American citizenship in 1971.
We have been friends and part of their family for 54 years.
They also asked us to be godparents to their daughter Becky.
A very proud moment in our lives.
May you rest in peace Barbara Love always*
