“ i never met Barb personally but through working with her at my job at Royal Chemical I had the chance to talk to her quite often. She was one of the strongest and most up beat people that I ever talked to. She is going to be greatly missed. RIP Barb.

“ I have known Barb since she and my sister met and became friends in second grade at St. Ignatius. Marion and I went over to the Pauli house on Elmdale every chance we got to see the new baby (Janet) and watch "I Remember Mama" every Friday night. The Pauli family became our extended family, their cousins our cousins, their mother our stand-in mother when our mother was hospitalized. Barb was a great friend and became an amazing woman, wife, mother, grandmother. She worked so hard both at home and at her outside job, but always had time for her children, her grandchildren, her nieces and nephews, her in-laws, her friends. Whatever happened (graduation parties seemed to attract major wind and thunderstorms) she just laughed and did whatever needed to be done to save the situation. I cherish the memories Barb and her family gave us.
