

Bernadine Puwal

January 8, 1939 - January 3, 2025

Bernadine Puwal, age 85, passed away on Friday, January 3, 2025. She was predeceased by her husband Ronald Puwal in 2015. She is survived by her daughter Deborah (Jeff) and three nephews. Bernadine was born in Detroit Michigan to Romuald and Bernice Dailey. Bernadine was raised by Bernice, who was a divorced single mother, employed at the Dodge Main plant in Detroit where she earned enough to see to it that Bernadine would be able to attend college. As a high school graduate of Denby High, Bernadine attended Wayne State University, completing a Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) in 1961. In later years, she also attended Aquinas College from where she earned her temporary teaching certification in 1986. She met her husband Ron on a blind date what had been arranged by mutual friends. They walked down the aisle together in Detroit at the Cathedral of the Most Blessed Sacrament in 1972. A brilliant person, Bernadine showed enthusiasm for the pursuit of knowledge, critical thinking skills and the importance of asking questions throughout her life. Her spunky personality will be missed.

Visitation for Bernadine will be on Sunday, from 1-5:00 p.m. and on Monday from 3-8:00 p.m. at the Wasik Funeral Home, 35259 23 Mile Rd. New Baltimore. Her funeral will be on Tuesday, January 7, 2025 at 10:00 a.m. at the funeral home and immediately following the service there will be a procession to St. Catherine Cemetery, Algonac.
