“ first off to bernies family: i dont have to tell you that bernie was one heck of a person---we heard more stories about his wife (all good) and daughters and other family members than i've ever heard from any other of my friends....he would always have something good to say about everyone...bernie became one of my best friends i ever had---even though some stories were embellished a little i dont think he ever had anything to say about someone or some situation that was bad....honesty ran through his blood...it's hard to say goodbye to some people but it's good to know he's uptheir clearing the path for all us....i'm truly honored to have known bernie and to have called him a valued friend

I first met Bernie when we worked as court officers at the Macomb Probate Court. We shared multiple police stories and had many laughs. We went to lunch often & I will miss that welcoming smile & his company. I am sure that the angles have their arms wrapped around you my friend, Rest In Peace. Bob Rabe
