“ Please accept my deepest sympathy. Although I didnâ€™t know Bernice personally, I know from the many conversations Iâ€™ve had with Kathy about her mother and the things that they used to do together, that she will be deeply missed and that the happy memories of Bernice will be cherished. May God grant all of Berniceâ€™s family and friends comfort from those memories and in the love that they that all shared with her. ##imported-begin##Nona Yackel##imported-end##

“ Dear Kathy and Alan,
Was so sorry and suprised to find out about your Mom's death. Your Mom sent a card in the mail to my Mom, which I took to her only yesterday!
If life were only as simple as I remember our lives being back there on Dresden! You are both in my thoughts and prayers.

Sincerely,
Roberta###imported-begin##Roberta DeMeyer Slater##imported-end##

“ Mrs. Przeklas, what an angel!!! I'll never forget the melt in your mouth taste of her outstanding coconut cream pies.....and nor will we ever stop laughing about Mr. Allen and his coconut cream pie story....Just ask Miss Mary about it.....we laugh to this day how disappointed Mr. Allen was, when his Aunt Clara "gave away" his coconut cream pie made by Mrs. Przeklas.....when looking at Mr. Allen's face you would have thought that a little bit of his heart had been broken when hearing that his coconut cream pie was no longer in his refrigerator!!!

We will miss Mrs. Przeklas' kindness and wonderfulness.....we are happy and take comfort in knowing that Bernice is now with her husband Chester and that they are with our Lord.##imported-begin##Elizabeth Cherry##imported-end##
