“ Your mom was like another mom to me in high school. Pat, Pete, Andrew and Andrea, my prayers are with you. I have so many great memories from hanging out at your house on Albion and your mom always made me feel so welcome. My wife Patti also LOVED getting to know your mom. Love and prayers to all of you.

“ My mother was happiest surrounded by family. We trust the good Lord will reunite her with the loved ones that have gone before her.

The time our mother spent with us will forever be cherished. She was excited to see her grandchildren grow, be part of their lives, and was as proud as could be at their college graduations. I don't believe I ever saw her happier and was thrilled to be part of it all.

She taught us to be strong, independent, stand up for what's right, have faith in God, and share the gifts bestowed upon us. We will miss her laugh, her hugs, the many times we spent together at the cottage and her ever present desire to help.

My mother helped shape us all into who we are and her spirit will be carried on by those that loved her most. Her decline in health did not diminish her ability to show that she still loved us. Toward the end of her days when she could no longer verbalize her thoughts, our simple walks, the loving gazes and reaching out to take our hand were clear signs she still held us dear.

I will forever love you Mom and hope my family and I made you feel loved, happy and one of us....as you truly are and will always be.

your loving son, Peter
