“ My dears, Shannon, Alisa and Danna Our hearts were so schocked and sadden when Ralph call to let us know Beverly has gone to meet the Lord. This will be a long grieving process for you girls but you must know she is no longer in pain and much happier with your dad. Neil knew Bev when she lived on the west side of Detroit in her younger days. May God Bless you all and akways keep you in His care as He is your parents. More Love and Prayers.##imported-“ Bev was a "second mom" to many of us from the east side and has a special place in all our hearts from that innocent time in our lives. The group I speak of know who they are. From a favorite friend's porch on Waltham Street; the quick wit, the stories, the laughter, growing pains, puppy love, and lessons shared during summer days/nights are matched by none!

For those of us lucky enough, Bev was there for us still during adulthood; football games, special occasions, and more...Bev was still our "second mom" sharing similar sentiments as in our youth. Did she just get wiser?... or funnier?... or did we understand the punch lines a little better as adults!lol...the laughter was even richer!

In her presence I felt the warmth of being a kid again and her words would warm me like a cup of hot cocoa. As an adult, I admired her recipe to life! Her energy and contagious laugh will live on with her daughters and beyond. She was so proud of her daughters and their families...and had positively no regrets!

I will cherish my time with you during my youth, I will cherish the grown-up version just as much! Peace to you Bev... our "second mom" xoxo###imported-begin###Laura Lyonnais Law###imported-end##

“ Dear Torzy Family,
I am deeply saddened to hear of your loss. I lost my dad on Memorial Day this year so I understand the sadness you are going through. Although no words can really help to ease the sorrow you bear, just know that you are in my prayers. May the comfort of God help you during this difficult time.###imported-begin###Mary A. “ Dear Myler Family,

I only met your mom briefly when we were in HS but her amazing spirit lives in each of her wonderful daughters, their family's and all who have come in contact with any of the above. I would so love to show my respects to her, celebrate her life and hugg each and every one of you. My husband has spent alot of this past year in Brazil and I am joining him Friday for 2-3 weeks or so there. In the meantime please accept my and all the Chase family's heartfelt sympathy, love and prayers.

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to Shannon and her family, Lisa and her family and Dana and her family. Bev lived a good long enjoyable life and I hope everyone will celebrate her life, not her passing. It's painful to loose a parent, but Bev would want us all to remember her life, her memories, and the love she gave us all and not be saddened by her death. She truly is in heaven, with Jim, and now is an angle to look over her loved ones. God bless and rest in peace.###imported-begin##phil mahoney###imported-end##

“ Mom, My heart hurts, I'm so sad that you are gone. I can't believe in two short months the lord has taken you. I know your in a better place and the pain is gone. Your probably fishin with dad or looking for a sizzling 7 machine. I will miss your morning calls, the kind words of support, your smile and laughter, the hugs and kisses and the love you have always givin. Rest in peace mom. I love you Shannon###imported-begin##Shannon Myler Torzy###imported-end##

“ Shannon and Alesia,
I know your pain is great, and nothing can ease it right now. You'll hear this often, but please know I'm praying for you to take comfort in knowing your mom is with your dad, feeling only love and joy for you and your family in a place of peace with no pain.
She was a beautiful woman and will be greatly missed.
Love you girls,
