“ Dear Family, I’m sorry to read of the loss of your dear fiance, son, brother and uncle Billy. I’d like to extend my deepest sympathies. I hope you can find comfort in the following that has helped me during times of loss. Jesus Christ, through God’s Kingdom will soon do away with death forever. God “will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces.”—Isaiah 25:8. ■ Health care will not be an issue because “no resident will say: ‘I am sick.’”—Isaiah 33:24. ■ Grieving will not be necessary, for “death will be no more.”— Revelation 21:4##imported-begin##Mrs. Houston##imported-end##

“ While I never had the pleasure of meeting Bill’s family and it’s been too long since I’ve seen Bill, know that my heart and prayers are with you. We shared good times in high school and his sweet, thoughtful personality will not be forgotten. Bill possessed character, maturity and true goodness beyond his years. I hope you are comforted always by his loving memory.##imported-begin##Meredith Moir##imported-end##

“ We were so schocked to hear the sad news. It has been so long, we sure did have some good times back in high school, hanging out at Winchester Mall, and so much more.
We were also surprised to here of Nicole.
Our thoughts and prayers will be with you Bill Sr. and Cassandra.
May the peace of the Lord be with you during this difficult time, and may Billy Jr. and Nicole rest in peace.##imported-begin##Don and Jan LaRose##imported-end##
