“ We have lost a special friend. I am very sad and my heart and prayers go out to Donna and Virgil and their families. I first met Bobbie when she franchised her first 7-Eleven in 1988. She was super sweet and wanted to learn. Since that time whenever we were attending the same 7-Eleven function, we looked for each other. I enjoyed seeing Bobbie and learning what she was up to. She always talked about her loving family, her friends she enjoyed so much and the adventures she had engaged in. I will always remember Bobbie to be a beautiful person inside and out. I will truly miss her! Rest In Peace, sweet Bobbie. ❤️
